Christmas with the Rajabieh Family? – To our Syrian family, Christmas is a mystery. They have had no prior experience with it and are surprised by the appearance of all the Christmas trees and lights. What better way to show them what Christmas is all about than inviting them into a home for a festive dinner with a family? Please consider whether you would be able to host the family for dinner (even Christmas dinner) sometime during the Christmas season. Contact Ramona Matthews, Pat Simon or Ken Crofoot if you are interested.

Christmas Eve Pageant Plans

It's not too late, your kids can still have a role in the pageant! Contact MJ with the role that your child may want. We will rehearse on December 11 and 18 after the service in the sanctuary. Please contact MJ for details!

Christmas Poinsettias. Each year on the Sunday prior to Christmas Day the Sanctuary is decorated with Poinsettia plants. Donations made to purchase these plants, in Memory of Loved Ones, enables you to participate in this floral celebration at Christmas. Green flower Slips are available in the pews. Please fill and use one of the offering envelopes to submit your flower donation and In Memory Of requests and put them in the offering bags. Kindly mark your slips clearly to indicate who your donation is for and from to ensure correct spelling of the donation to ensure accuracy on the final insert.

LIBRARY LINES

Enhance the Christmas season with good reading for all ages! See you after the service in the resource centre. Next Sunday is a special Double Double DVD Day: Double time (that's 2 weeks) and double the number (4 per family).

From the Hospitality Team - Hospitality would appreciate any offers to contribute a 'sweet or savoury' nibble to our fellowship time with the choir after the Cantata next Sunday Dec. 11th. Please contact the hospitality team if you can help out.

Thank you,
Karen, Donna, Judy, Ruth and Marlin

Welcome Our Guest Preacher Today – Rev. LeDayne McLeese Polaski

A native of Greenville, South Carolina, LeDayne McLeese Polaski is a life-long Carolinian (having lived in Greenville, Durham, Rock Hill and now Charlotte). She is a graduate of Furman University in Greenville, and it was there that her commitment to issues of peace and justice began. She received her M.Div. in 1993 from the Divinity School at Duke University in Durham, North Carolina and was ordained there in Durham at Watts Street Baptist Church. After serving for five and a half years as the Minister of Youth at Myers Park Baptist Church in Charlotte, LeDayne came to the Baptist Peace Fellowship of North America in July of 1998. She has served in a variety of roles and in September of 2006, became the BPFNA's Program Coordinator. In 2015, LeDayne became BPFNA's Executive Director.

LeDayne is married to Tom Polaski, a professor of mathematics at Winthrop University in Rock Hill, South Carolina. They are active members of Park Road Baptist Church in Charlotte.

LeDayne enjoys hanging out with family and friends, doing the daily crossword puzzle, reading, visiting wineries, and hiking. She is committed to the local church and excited about the ways that churches can and do work for peace grounded in justice.
