The Syrian Refugee Committee is looking for volunteers to take the Rajabieh family to fall outings to get them out of their apartment and into the community and countryside. As much contact as possible is good for them to hear and practice their English. You will find them delightfully gracious for everything done for them. Ideas are to take the family apple picking, going for a drive to see the colours, taking them to a minor hockey game, taking them to an outdoor market, taking them to the Toronto islands and so on.

Please speak to Ken Crofoot or Ramona Matthews if you have an idea and would like to participate.
